

[John 1:14 ESV]

14 And the Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we have seen his glory, glory as of the only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth.

[John 3:16 ESV]

16 "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life.

The word became flesh, God as a man

[Matthew 28:18 ESV]

18 And Jesus came and said to them, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me.

God loves us so much; he sent Jesus, even though he knew what would happen.

Jesus is (and this is the part that is kind of hard to explain) is as God, he was there at creation

[John 1:1-3 ESV]

1 In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 He was in the beginning with God.

3 All things were made through him, and without him was not any thing made that was made.

The Word was God, created the universe, created all that is in the universe, created man.

God so loves us that he was willing to humble himself, to take on flesh to save us, God could have just let us die and not thought about us again, after all, he is sovereign, with or without us, he is still God, ever unchanging.

[Revelation 1:8 ESV]

8 "I am the Alpha and the Omega," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

God who is perfect, took on flesh, allowed us, to mock him, scourge and beat him and nail him to the cross, we were even so disgusting as to draw lots for his garments.

God loves so much that he was willing to save us at the cost of having the worst that we could do, done to him, for our sake, not his.

All parents want the same things from their children, to be loved and respected, and to have them love each other.

[Matthew 22:36-39 ESV]

36 "Teacher, which is the great commandment in the Law?"

37 And he said to him, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind.

38 This is the great and first commandment.

39 And a second is like it: You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
